

In 1851 my ancestors, William Bailey & Sarah Lake settled in North Ogden. Having crossed the plains as pioneers, they left a legacy for our family of hard work. Today, 166 years later, I am committed to make North Ogden the treasure beneath Ben Lomond's peak that it has always been! I was born and raised in North Ogden graduating from Weber High in 1984. After spending two years as an LDS missionary, I returned to North Ogden and married Melanie Heiner. We have four incredible children! In 1997 I graduated from BYU with a Masters' Degree in Public Administration. My formal service in the city began in 2015 when Mayor Taylor asked me to serve on the Economic Development Committee. In February of this year, I was appointed by the Mayor to serve on the Planning Commission for North Ogden. If elected, I am committed to government transparency; fiscal responsibility, honesty and public safety.
