 - c.  - b. After affirmative consensus vote on the motion, the Mayor will strike the gavel and declare the meeting adjourned.

Rule VIII: Motions.

1. Matters appearing on the Agenda can be discussed by the Council prior to a motion being made.
2. After a matter has been discussed by the Council, the Mayor will ask for a motion on the matter, and a second to the motion.
3. The Mayor will:
 - a. announce the author of the motion;
 - b. restate the motion;
 - c. announce who seconded the motion;
 - d. ask if there is a question on the motion; and

4. If further Council discussion is needed on a motion, the author of such motion is allowed to speak first and all other Council Members are allowed to address the issue after that.
5. The author of the motion is also allowed to make a summation.
6. The author of a motion may amend or withdraw that motion before it has been voted on.
7. Technically, after a motion has been stated by the Mayor, that motion belongs to the Council and it requires a majority vote to withdraw it; in practice, however, the Council allows the author of a motion to withdraw it unless another Council Member objects.
8. A motion dies which fails to receive a "second".
9. A Council Member may make a motion to reconsider an item already voted on at

- a prior meeting.
10. A motion to reconsider must be made by a member present and voting on the prevailing side of the original motion and shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Council Members present and voting.
 11. Any action taken by the Council shall not be reconsidered or rescinded at a Special Meeting unless the number of members of the Council present at the Special Meeting is equal to or greater than the number of members present at the meeting when the action was approved or disapproved. Utah Code Ann. § 10-3-508.
 12. An item to be reconsidered shall appear on the Active Agenda and shall be identified as "Reconsideration of (the title of the matter previously voted upon)."
 13. Discussion of the substance of matter to be reconsidered shall occur only after a motion to reconsider has been successfully approved by a majority of the Council present and voting.
 14. Other than the main motion, the most common motion used by the Council is a motion to amend. The intent of an amendment is to modify the original motion by inserting, adding to, striking out, and striking out and inserting language in the original motion. A motion to amend a main motion should relate to the same subject as the main motion. This ensures that the Council will vote on one matter at a time.
 15. A motion to amend should not have as its intent a reversal of the main motion. For example, if the main motion is to adopt an ordinance, it is not a proper motion to submit an amendment to "not" adopt the ordinance.
 16. Substitute motions are a type of amendment motion. The difference is the striking out of an entire paragraph or more from the motion, (or ordinance), and substituting different language.
 17. Amendments to the main motion are discussed and voted on before the main motion. Only the amendment is discussed - not the main motion. If the amendment fails, then discussion and voting on the main motion, as originally stated, follows. If the amended motion passes, the amended motion becomes the main motion.
 18. The Mayor will proceed with an amendment motion in the same manner as a main motion.
 19. In conducting a Council discussion on an amendment motion, the author of such motion is allowed to speak first. All other Council Members are allowed to address the issue after that. The author of the amendment motion is also allowed to make a summation.
 20. Any Council Member may move to amend any proposed ordinance or proposed resolution; provided, however, that no amendment shall change the original purpose.
 21. Any amendments to a proposed ordinance or proposed resolution recommended by a committee of the Council shall be made to the appropriate document prior to its appearing on the Consent Agenda. Such amendment will be noted in the Council minutes.
 22. The Council may move to table a motion. The purpose of tabling a motion is not to kill the motion, but to delay action until a future meeting of the Council. When a matter is tabled, it takes all subsidiary motions with it (e.g., amendments) to the table. A matter should be tabled no longer than necessary; preferably it will be scheduled for discussion at the next available Regular Council Meeting or Work Meeting so that action can be taken as soon as possible.

23. The following procedural motions shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Council Members present:
- a. To adjourn;
 - b. To recess;
 - c. To take up a question out of its proper order;
 - d. To move the previous question;
 - e. To postpone to a day certain;
 - f. To refer to a committee;
 - g. To limit discussion;
 - h. To lay on the table (temporary only); or
 - i. To amend

Such motions shall take precedence in the order moved.

Rule IX: Discussion.

1. The Mayor shall recognize any Council Member requesting recognition to speak, discuss, give a notice, make a motion, submit a report or for any reason address the Council, unless a motion taking precedence is offered.
2. All Council Members shall be allowed to speak at least once on any subject.
3. During discussion, the Mayor shall be responsible for maintaining order.
4. If, in the opinion of the Mayor, private discourse among or between Council Members or any other disturbance disrupts the Council's business, the Mayor may call the Council to order.
5. If the Mayor calls the Council to order, all Council business shall cease until such time as the Mayor resumes the Council's business.
6. Any Council Member may make a motion that the Council be called to order.
7. The following questions will be decided without discussion:

 - c. Questions relating to order of business.

When a matter in which a Council Member has a business or investment interest appears on the Council agenda, the Council Member must publicly disclose that interest. Although state law does not require a Council Member to abstain from voting or avoid participating in a discussion regarding an item where there is a conflict of interest, it is advisable to do so. Utah Code Ann. § 10-3-1301 to 1312.

Rule XI: Decorum.

1. Conduct of Members of the Council.
 - a. Members of the Council shall not engage in personal attacks and shall restrict comments to issues before the body. Violations of decorum or conduct of Council Members shall be addressed by the Mayor who may declare a Council Member out of order.

1. At the request of the City Council the Mayor may, from time to time, create, revise, or abolish committees, or make any changes to a committee structure, subject to a two-thirds vote of the Council, a quorum being present.
2. When such committee is created, its purpose and a relevant time frame will be established.
3. After the final report of the committee to the City Council, the committee will be dissolved.
4. The City Council, by a two-thirds vote, a quorum being present, may or may not elect to formally participate, either by its own membership or its designees, in a committee being established by the Mayor.
5. The Council as a whole may resolve to sit as an oversight committee for the purpose of investigating items relating to the conduct of City business. However, no powers are accorded the committee other than those provided by state law.

5. Privileged and Private Information
1. The vast majority of the records and affairs of North Ogden City are public information which citizens, including the press, have the right to know. All public information should be provided to the press upon request without unnecessary delay.
 2. Some matters, however, like ongoing investigations, information regarding litigation or the threat of litigation, personnel issues, real estate transactions, medical and mental health matters, private data regarding citizens, documents in draft form, to name a few, are governed by privileges and laws intended to advance important public policy goals.
 3. When a media request for an interview or for records appears to involve a subject matter that may be privileged or private, the CITY PIO, Police PIO or Recorder should consult with the City Attorney. The City Attorney will review the request without delay and promptly provide counsel to the CITY PIO or Recorder.

6. Personal Points of View

1. It is recognized that all employees have the right to express their personal points of view regarding matters of general public concern.
2. However, personal points of view may conflict with the City's official policy.
3. Therefore, City employees who write letters to the editor may not use official City stationery. If an employee chooses to identify himself or herself as a City employee in a letter or email to the editor, he or she must state that the views set forth in the letter do not represent the views of the City but are the employee's personal opinions.
4. A similar disclaimer must be given if an employee addresses a public meeting, participates in a radio talk show, or is interviewed for radio or television, unless the employee has been designated by the CITY PIO as a spokesperson for the City.

7. City-initiated Information

1. Proactive media contact on behalf of the City is processed through the CITY PIO -- this includes press releases, media advisories and personal contacts with reporters and editors for coverage.
2. Departments seeking publicity for events or activities, or needing to collaborate with the media to communicate important information to the public, will coordinate with the CITY PIO.
3. Departments (except law enforcement on matters pertaining to investigations) may not unilaterally initiate media contacts.
4. When the CITY PIO approves a proactive media contact, he or she shall notify elected officials of the substance of the contact by telephone or email prior to the information being released.

8. Public Safety Issues

1. Because the Police Department operates 24/7 and its work generates a high volume of media calls, it shall designate an officer or officers as Police Public Information Officers or "Police PIO's" and follow specific guidelines when releasing information.
2. When the CITY PIO is notified by a City staff member of a media call regarding a police investigation or general criminal activity, the CITY PIO will immediately forward the contact to the Police PIO for the appropriate response.
3. All information released to the media by the Police PIO should be provided immediately to the CITY PIO who will forward the information without delay by telephone or email to elected officials.
4. Media inquiries concerning matters of police personnel, general police policies and procedures or in any way reflecting upon the competency or integrity of police personnel or police administration will be routed to and handled directly by the CITY PIO as provided in this policy.

9. Crisis or Emergency Issues
During a crisis or major emergency (i.e. flooding, earthquake, etc.), the procedure for communicating with the media is highlighted in the City's Emergency Plan. The plan designates the CITY PIO as the main point of contact for the media. The CITY PIO is assisted by alternates, including the Police PIO, who prepare and disseminate emergency public information.
