

11-10-7: ANIMALS AND FOWL:

- A. No barn, coop, pen or corral shall be maintained closer than fifty feet (50') from any dwelling and not closer than seventy five feet (75') from a dwelling on any adjacent lot. Any barn, stable, coop, pen or corral for the housing or keeping of animals or fowl shall be kept, constructed or maintained not less than one hundred feet (100') from a public street. A fenced pasture of one acre or more will be permitted to abut adjoining property lines and the property line adjacent to the public street.
- B. The kenneling of not more than four (4) dogs will be permitted only in the zones so designated as a conditional use. The pen or run in which the dog or dogs are kept shall not be built closer than one foot (1') to the property lines, but in no case shall it encroach upon existing utility easements. The pen or run shall be designed so as not to permit runoff onto adjoining property.
- C. Except when a conditional use permit is issued for a kennel, there shall not be more than two (2) dogs or cats, or combination thereof.
- D. The limitation of household pets shall be as follows:
1. Fish, no limit.
 2. Gerbils, hamsters, guinea pigs and or rabbits, no more than four (4), either exclusively of one kind or in combination.
 3. Nonpoisonous snakes less than three feet (3') long, no more than two (2).
 4. Turtles less than one foot (1') long, no limit.
 5. Nonpoisonous lizards less than one foot (1') long, no more than two (2).
 6. Parrots, no more than two (2), exclusively or in combination.
 7. Budgerigars and parakeets, no limit. (Ord. 2002-05, 4-9-2002)
